

THE PUZZLE

Children try to complete the pictures composed of many particles (as many as you want). The picture can be anything in which different colors exist. The colors and shapes of particles give clues about their places in the picture. The child who completes the picture first and correctly wins the game.

