

The goal of Comenius Project is to reach a high quality of improvement in schools with the help of a careful selection of schools, teachers and students from different nations like Italy, Poland, Romania, Sweden, Spain, Turkey and Czech Republic. The attention of the project is focused especially on the utilization of ICT (Information and Communication Technology), which provides the opportunity of presenting the school material in an attractive, creative and up-to-date way. ICT is not only important for a new way of teaching, but it provides the creation of a cultural baggage for students and teachers as well. Cooperation between teachers from different countries, with different school backgrounds, is a key element of this project which, according to it, has to improve the pedagogical approach and increase the use of CLIL (Content and
